

Reflective Supervision TRAININGS

REFLECTIVE SUPERVISION/ CONSULTATION WITH TRAUMATIZED PROVIDERS OCT. 14 9AM-12 NOON

ANNA VENDRELY, LCSW, IMH-E

Explore advanced concepts for supporting clinical professionals in their reflective consultation work with traumatized providers.

- Enhance reflective work with traumatized individuals
- Identify effective strategies for supporting supervisors
- Build understanding of mindful self-regulation in triggering situations

REGISTER AT

<https://bit.ly/NMAIMHOctober>

DEADLINE TO REGISTER IS OCT. 12

only $30 per Training

Payment can be made via PayPal to: admin@nmaimh.org or via a check sent to the NMAIMH office:

1933 San Mateo Blvd. NE PMB 203, ABQ, NM 87110

AN INTRODUCTION TO REFLECTIVE SUPERVISION

NOV. 3, 9AM-12 NOON

TEKLA JOHNSON, LCSW, IMH-E

What is reflective supervision? Why is it important to the work we do? Providers will learn about aspects relevant to the skills and interests of supervision including:

- Three levels of attunement
- How the FAN can support effective supervision
- Structuring group and individual supervision

REGISTER AT

<https://bit.ly/NMAIMHNovember>

DEADLINE TO REGISTER IS NOV. 1